

When I was a ba-che-lor, I liv'd all a-lone I worked at the wea-ver's trade; and the 5 only, on-ly thing that I did that was wrong was to woo a fair young maid. I 9 wooed her in the wintertime, and part of the summer, too, and the only, only thing that I 14 did that was wrong was to keep her from the fog-gy, fog-gy dew.

When I was a bachelor,
 I liv'd all alone
 I worked at the weaver's trade;
 and the only, only thing
 that I did that was wrong
 was to woo a fair young maid.
 I wooed her in the wintertime, and part of the summer, too,
 and the only, only thing
 was to keep her from the foggy, foggy dew.

She wept, she cried, she tore her hair
 Ah me, what could I do So all night long I held her in my arms
 To keep her from the foggy, foggy dew

One night she knelt down by my side
 When I was fast asleep
 She threw her arms around my neck
 And then began to weep

Again I am a bachelor and I live with my son
 We work at the weaver's trade
 And every single time that I look into his eyes He reminds me of the fair young maid.

He reminds me of the winter time
 Part of the summer too
 And the many, many times
 I held her in my arms
 To keep her from the foggy, foggy dew.
